

The Ryukoku Museum of Buddhism & Buddhist Culture exhibits a wide variety of cultural artifacts centered around Buddhism, taking into consideration the birth of Buddhism in India, the spread of Buddhism into Asia and the development of Buddhism in Japan. Series Exhibitions trace the birth and spread of Buddhism. The exhibitions aim to deepen the visitor's understanding of Buddhist philosophies and related history and culture through the fundamentals of Ryukoku University research achievements and exhibits of actual artifacts, and through various other methods. In addition, there are Special and Planned Exhibits held a few times a year where research project results in various fields from both the university and from outside projects are disclosed.

Series Exhibition 6 シリーズ展6「仏教の思想と文化-インドから日本へ-」

Thought and Culture of Buddhism -from India to Japan- 6

Born in India, Buddhism made its way to Japan using the northern and southern routes via China and the Korean peninsula. From the life of Guatama Buddha, the roots of Buddhism, and the teaching of Buddhism in various areas, to the spread and history of Buddhism in Japan, the museum introduces Buddhism in an easy to understand manner using various methods based on a foundation of exhibiting actual artifacts.
