Kotani Kanamono

キッチン・生活雑貨・工具
Japanese kitchen and household hardware and tools

Originally made authentic kitchen knives, traditional Japanese rain gutters and convenient cooking utensils.

Kotani Kanamono is a 7-minute walk from JR Kyoto Station, located between Higashi Honganji Temple and Nishi Honganji Temple.

It was originally a blacksmith's shop at the intersection of Higashinotoin-dori and Shichijo-dori Streets, and was a long-established company with over 100 years of history. It later prospered as a hardware store, doing business with many local carpenters and building contractors, and has a selection of over 15,000 items, from architectural hardware, metal fittings and tools to kitchen equipment, professional cookware, baking tools and household goods. In recent years, there has been an increase in the number of foreign tourists from countries all over the world who come to buy Japanese knives made with traditional methods by craftsmen.

"Sweet Marron Caffé" has been added to the second floor, designed and constructed entirely by Kotani Kanamono, to be a relaxing, modern space. Decorated with retro-looking furniture such as "Kaidan Tansu" (Japanese step chests), it is a café where you can drop by for breakfast or lunch at reasonable prices. Please visit the special corner for tourists with useful Kyoto sightseeing maps and tourist information available for free.

↓ In Japan, temples and houses often use Japanese-style gutters (toyu) for decoration. Gold-colored gutters are priced at ¥35,000 and ¥46,000. Rain chain gutters are also available. *All prices exclude tax.
