

Select your language from the drop-down menu.

In order to track your exact current location, open this webpage on the default browser, such as “Safari” or “Chrome”, and allow your smartphone to use your current location.

With the compass function, you can find directions and the linear distance to your destination. The information will be updated in real time as you move around.

You can find the locations of signboard maps in Kyoto city.

- [What you can find on this website]
- What to do in times of disaster
 - Evacuation navigation (Your nearest evacuation shelter, evacuation route signage, etc.)
 - What you should pay attention to
 - Facilities information map (Location of rest rooms, Wi-Fi hotspots, etc.)
 - Transportation status information