

Chocolaterie HISASHI

ショコラトリーヒサシ

Chocolate confectionery

Try chocolate bonbons and original sweets by the chef who won a world chocolate championship.

Chef Hisashi Onobayashi opened Chocolaterie HISASHI in April 2018, after gaining experience working at a famous Japanese shop for fifteen years. He won the 2012 World Pastry Team Championship, and to commemorate, he created a set of three chocolate bonbons called "WPTC 2012": coffee and walnut; fruit caramel; and yuzu and coconut. There are roughly 18 other varieties of bonbons available using carefully chosen ingredients. Taking advantage of his knowledge of making Japanese sweets, "Mona Chocolat" is an original inspired by the "monaka" Japanese wafer sandwich.

Saryo Suisen

茶寮翠泉

Kyoto sweets café

A teahouse made in the image of a tearoom, full of Japanese atmosphere, with matcha green tea sweets made with famous Uji tea.

The storefront is in the style of a traditional machiya townhouse. You can enjoy special sweets, surrounded by a Japanese mood. The "Suisen Parfait" is the number one recommendation. With high quality matcha ice cream, Japanese red-bean pancake, friand cake and sweet rice shirataki dumplings, it is a veritable assortment of matcha flavors, made with top grade matcha tea. Other matcha desserts include Matcha Awayuki Kori Ice (¥1,130) and Marokoi Matcha Latte (hot) 3D Art (¥650).

Hayashi Manshodo

林万昌堂

Sweet chestnuts

Using a traditional method to make freshly-roasted sweet chestnuts for over 140 years.

This sweet chestnuts (Amaguri) shop is at the intersection of Kyoto's ever-bustling Shijo-dori street and the Shinkyogoku Shopping Arcade. Using high quality "Kahoku Ritsu" chestnuts from China's Hebei Province, these carefully roasted Amaguri are very sweet and aromatic. Since its founding, Hayashi Manshodo has only sold chestnuts that are roasted on that day, showing its dedication to flavor.
