Cleaning cloths for glasses

Authentic Kyoto yuzen cloths that are perfect as gifts with vivid colors and designs typical of Kyoto.

Kyoto yuzen is a kimono dyeing technique developed in Kyoto since the 17th century. Handcrafted one by one, "Ofuki" cleaning cloths for glasses are made with the same material as a kimono and dyed with the same method. The cloth is soft, fits comfortably in your hand, and convenient. The cute packaging is sure to be appreciated by those receiving one as a gift.

Zohiko

京漆器 象彦

Kyoto-style lacquerware

Established in 1661, Zohiko is one of Japan's leading urushi lacquerware shops.

Zohiko has continued the tradition of beautiful Kyoto lacquerware coated with urushi lacquer and decorated with maki-e work for over 350 years. While such works are treated as luxury items, they can still function excellently as everyday tableware. Tsubomi (flower-bud) cups, for tea or soup, are made of wood and lightweight. Many other kinds of goods are available.

Asuka Rokujido

あすか六字堂

Kyoto style prayer beads

Founded in 1888, Asuka Rokujido makes and sells Kyo-nenju (Kyoto style prayer beads) and juzu prayer beads using carefully selected materials and the finest techniques by skilled craftsmen.

There is a wide variety of nenju beads and bracelet nenju beads for each of the Buddhist sects. The bracelet nenju can be worn like a regular bracelet and still act as a protective charm against evil spirits and be used to pray for having your wishes fulfilled. Made with natural stone (healing crystal) that are said to give the wearer a mysterious strength, they are very popular with foreign tourists.
